Jay Shree Swaminarayan,

Please see information about the three nominated charities:

St Luke's is a charity providing specialist end of life and palliative care to people in Harrow and Brent, enabling them to achieve the best possible quality of life. Their vision is a world where everyone with an incurable illness can access the care they need to live well, to know that their family and carers are supported, and to die with dignity in the place of their choice. All their services are provided free of charge. That is only possible because of the generous support they receive from the local community like us. We have provided them with much needed high quality medical adjustable specialist beds in the year 2017 which are still being used to date.

Go Dharmic exists to help make a more compassionate, non-violent world. Inspired by the philosophical concept of Dharma, their calling is to equip themselves and others with the knowledge and practical means to reduce the suffering of all living beings. This is an international charity and SKSS Temple has opened up a food bank with them since May 2021. This is one of the first project by the temple with Go Dharmic.

Centre for
Mental Health

Centre for Mental Health is an independent, not for profit thinktank. They are dedicated to eradicating mental health inequalities and fighting injustice by changing policy and practice. They have been at the heart of some of the most important changes in policy and practice including government investment in the NHS (through the Five Year Forward View and Long-Term Plan), widespread adoption of mental health support in workplaces, maternal mental health provision, liaison and diversion services, planned reform of the Mental Health Act, and importantly in the pursuit of mental health equality. The charity in conjunction with SKSS Temple will aim to provide bespoke packages to support the local and national community including schools. Funding will also be used to further strengthen their work related to 100s of other organisations affiliated to them.
